SPOILED DIVA by CL Felder

I know you guys always hear me talk about fashion & trunk shows.. But we as women also love to indulge ourselves with trendy purses... I know for myself, I have over 50 in my closet..Some I may wear more often than others but at all times I absolutely have to rock a funky purse!!

And if you're anything like me.. you would host your own purse party with Spoiled Diva?

A Spoiled Diva Party is a fun and exciting way to spend an afternoon with a few of your fashionistas in the comfort of your own location. They play games, have a "mini fashion show" and top off the afternoon with a drawing for a fabulous prize! Best of all, you get terrific discounts on many of their newest styles!

Book your Spoiled Diva Party today!
